Parents should be careful that their children do not contract colds during the fall or early winter months. Such colds weaken the lungs and air passages, making the child much more likely to contract other colds during the winter.

It is this excess of colds that causes catarrh and bronchitis or paves the way for consumption. Should a cold be contracted, lose no time but cure it as quickly as possible. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold in a few days and leave the respiratory organs strong and healthy. For sale by H. H. Watkins.

Sam Burnett, who is running a faro table in the Arcade saloon, deposited his coin sack in the safe in the saloon on closing the game last night. The safe is a small iron one and stands near the writing desk in one of the front windows of the saloon, behind a railing running from the bar to the window. Sometime during Tuesday night some enterprising individual opened the safe door, which, it is supposed, was left standing on the opening number of the combination, and took the sack, which contained $450, and all efforts to find it have been of no avail. A pocket-book containing over $1,000 and belonging to Russell & Zeimer, which lay along side of the sack, the thief overlooked. Mr. Burnett still has several thousand dollars left, and the game proceeds as usual, but he is anxious to find the fellow who got the sack.

Gordon Brought Back.

Monday afternoon Sheriff Turner, of Lincoln county, Nevada, brought in from Pioche, Cal., a Gordon who was wanted here on charge of.

"obtaining money under false pretenses from the W. H. Taggart Mercantile Co. at their store on Stockton Hill and at this place, in the early part of July last. Gordon gave to W. H. Rogers, who has charge of the store at Stockton Hill, an order on M. D. Howell, of the C. O. D. mine, for his wages for the month of June due him, and received from Rogers $60 in cash. Before the order could be presented to Mr. Howell, Gordon came to Kingman and meeting Mr. Howell obtained $50 from him, due for wages earned during June, and also some clothing from The Taggart Mercantile Co. Gordon borrowed money during his stay in town that day from every one that he could and during the night left for parts unknown. Sheriff Lake sent descriptions of him to all the adjoining towns and counties, and offered $50 for his arrest. Sheriff Turner got the notice and when Gordon, a few weeks ago, walked into Pioche, arrested him and notified Sheriff Lake, who wrote him to bring him here as soon as he could. Tuesday Gordon was brought before Justice of the Peace Funston and the examination set for Thursday morning, which resulted in his being held to answer, and bail placed at $500. Gordon was unable to obtain bail and was committed to jail, where he will probably remain until the April term of court. Gordon is a miner by occupation and it is said that he succeeded in obtaining money from a number of others at the C. O. D. just before he left.

Hardy Heard From.

KINGMAN, A. T., Oct. 4, 1890.

EDITOR MINER:

Now that the "cruel war is over" will it not be in order to request the warriors from the different parts of the county to send in the names of the killed and wounded and missing on our side? Also send in the scalps of Indians killed. It is necessary to send scalps as vouchers. In early days of 1864, '65 and '66 a man was not credited unless he had a voucher. I learn that parties at Cerbat and also at Chloride are still on the war path, but in all other parts of the county the pipe of peace is being smoked as usual.

I notice in Booth's Razor that a correspondent from Hackberry quotes the oldest inhabitants as being alarmed at the strange actions of the Wallapai. Give us the names of the oldest inhabitants who feared an outbreak of Indians, "Major." W. F. Grounds, Sam Crozier, Fred. Nohmann, John Fielding, and families, all living near or at Hackberry, insisted all the time that there was no danger. Now who were the parties scared? Who fortified? Will the fortifications built during the late Indian scare be preserved as a relic of the "cruel war," or what will be done with them? The idea that a half dozen irresponsible men living or stopping at a railroad station should pretend to get scared, and telegraph for arms, and telegraph that two hundred Apaches are near, and that they are fortifying against them. These dispatches are telegraphed all over the United States, to the detriment of Arizona generally. The half day men who got up this scare should be placed on a reservation, that such a "break" is not repeated. The old Indians say "white men all same squaws, afraid of a shadow."

When whites break out they should be punished as well as Indians.

Peach Springs Letter List.

Letters remaining uncalled for in the post office at Peach Springs, Oct. 1st, 1890. If not called for in 30 days will be sent to the dead letter office at Washington, D. C.

Creighton, Mrs. Lusk, Mr. A. P. Montoya, Cardanis Galindo, David Hernandez, Loarie Kirby, Mrs. Amanda Otero, Rafael (2) Weaver, Frank.

J. N. COHENOUR, Postmaster.

MINING NOTES.

Oliver Bros. made a shipment from the Prosperity, Todd Basin, this week. The ore was of good grade.

A car load of ore is being hauled from the Tintic gold mine, Chloride, to the ore platform of Frank L. Smith.

Dan McKinnon will soon make a shipment from the Altata. This ore contains a good per cent. of copper and will be shipped to Argo.

Ewing & Prisk continue to find plenty of shipping ore in the Tuckey, Blow-pipe Flat, near Chloride. They will send in a car load next week.

George Miller brought in a lot of ore from the Weaver district, which he expects to assay in the neighborhood of 600 ounces silver per ton.

John Kolar is still sinking on the Old Overland, Wallapai Mountains, and all assays made so far indicate that his shipment will be a high grade one.

A. M. MacDuffee is taking some very high grade ore from the Rustler, Chloride, a car load of which would net a few thousands of dollars to the producer were he lucky enough to get that quantity.

Messrs. Brown, Kilburn & Co., who have a lease on the Rural, Mineral Park, have out a few tons of good ore, for which the Rural is noted. The indications are that the ore body will prove a large and profitable one.

James Uncapher and J. P. Finigan are working a claim near Mineral Park, which they recently purchased from the Gross boys. They have a small streak of very high grade ore and propose to see what it leads to.

Judge Morton is negotiating a lease of the mill and tailing pit of the Keystone Co., Mineral Park. The Judge professes a thorough knowledge of milling and thinks the tailings can be worked at a fair profit to himself and the company.

Messrs. Park & Henson, lessees of the Queen Bee, Mineral Park, will next week increase their force by the addition of half a dozen miners. The mine never looked so well as at present, and regular car load shipments will be the order in future.

As predicted, the Keystone Company ceased cross-cutting in the Congress shaft when the cross-cut had been driven six or seven feet. It costs about $900 per month to keep the mine pumped out, watchman at the mill, etc., which, if expended in prospecting, would probably find a body of ore.

Dr. G. W. Tolhurst, a dentist of Los Angeles, will be in Kingman on Tuesday next week and remain two weeks, prepared to do all kinds of dental work. Teeth extracted without pain. The writer knew the doctor in days gone by and can recommend him as a gentleman and an expert dentist.
